Statement by the spokesperson of High Representative Catherine Ashton
on the bombing in Abuja, Nigeria

The Spokesperson of Catherine Ashton, High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy and Vice-President of the Commission, issued the following statement today:

“The High Representative Catherine Ashton strongly condemns the bombings that have killed and injured innocent people in Abuja today during the celebrations of Nigeria Golden Jubilee Independence Anniversary. This is a despicable terrorist act against a democratic society. The High Representative extends her condolences to the Government and people of Nigeria as well as to the families of the victims.”
