Statement by EU High Representative Catherine Ashton on the 10th anniversary of democratic changes in Serbia

Catherine Ashton, the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy and Vice-President of the Commission made the following statement:

"10 years ago the people of Serbia made a historic choice. I congratulate them and all those who, since then, have contributed to democracy in Serbia and to peace, stability and reconciliation.
I look forward to working with President Tadic as he takes Serbia on its path towards the European Union."
