Statement by EU High Representative Catherine Ashton on the attacks at the Moscow's Domodedovo airport

Catherine Ashton, the EU High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy and Vice-President of the Commission, made today the following statement:

"I strongly condemn today's murderous attack at the Moscow's Domodedovo airport that claimed the lives of at least 30 people and wounded more than 130.

I express my deepest condolences to the families and friends of the victims and to the Russian government. Innocent travellers have been killed by this brutal, random attack.

The European Union condemns all acts of terrorism, and expresses its solidarity with the Russian people."

____________________