Statement by the Spokesperson of High Representative Catherine Ashton on the attack in Somalia

The spokesperson of Catherine Ashton, High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy and Vice President of the Commission, issued the following statement today:

"The High Representative condemns today's terrorist attack in Mogadishu, Somalia, that claimed lives of both police and civilians alike.

She extends her sincere condolences to the families and friends of those killed and injured in this unacceptable incident and expresses the European Union's solidarity with the Somali people. The EU remains committed to provide support to all those who are making efforts to bring peace and security to the country and to build a stable Somalia."
