EUROPEAN UNION

Brussels, 12 March 2011
A 103/11

Statement by EU High Representative Catherine Ashton on the ICC's decision to issues summonses for six individuals in relation to the 2007-2008 post-election violence in Kenya

Catherine Ashton, the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy and Vice-President of the Commission made the following statement:

“I take note of the International Criminal Court's decision to issue summonses for six individuals to appear for their alleged roles in the 2007-2008 Kenyan post-election violence. I urge the named individuals to cooperate fully with the ICC.

The EU fully supports and respects the International Criminal Court and its key role in the promotion of international justice.”