Statement by the spokesperson of EU High Representative Catherine Ashton following the attack on the Bulgarian Ambassador in Sana'a

The spokesperson of Catherine Ashton, High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy and Vice President of the Commission, issued the following statement today:

"The High Representative condemns the attack in Sana'a on 12 May that injured the Bulgarian Ambassador to Yemen, Boris Genadiev Borisov, and expresses the sincere solidarity of the European Union.

The High Representative calls on the Yemeni authorities to do their utmost to investigate the incident. This represents further evidence of the fragile security situation in Yemen including Sana’a.

She reiterates the unequivocal support of the European Union to President Hadi, the National Consensus Government and the implementation of the GCC initiative."
