Statement by the spokesperson of High Representative Catherine Ashton on forthcoming consultations in the framework of the EU-facilitated dialogue

The spokesperson of Catherine Ashton, High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy and Vice President of the Commission, issued the following statement today:

"High Representative Catherine Ashton will hold consultations with representatives of Serbia and Kosovo in the framework of the EU-facilitated dialogue for the normalisation of relations between the two sides next week. She is delighted that President Nikolić, Prime Minister Dačić and Deputy Prime Minister Vučić have accepted her invitation to come to Brussels on Monday 11 March. She is also delighted to meet with Prime Minister Thaçi and Kosovo party leaders in Pristina on 14 March.

The next dialogue meeting of PM Dačić and PM Thaçi with HR Ashton will take place, as announced, on 20 March in Brussels."
