II.1.4) Short description:

The Delegation of the European Union to Ukraine intends to conclude a service contract for implementing an information campaign of the Delegation aimed at raising awareness and creating a positive attitude of the Ukrainian society to the developments in the EU–Ukraine relations, in particular to the Association Agreement (AA and Deep and Comprehensive Free Trade Area (DCFTA)), and explaining the necessity and benefits of the reforms linked with them. Attention should be drawn to the positive changes in everyday life, which the AA offers; promoting a positive image and 'desirability' of these changes as well as ways of achieving them. It will be important also to emphasise the need for citizens' personal involvement in working for these changes. The basic objective of the information campaign is to raise awareness and understanding of the EU policies, EU–Ukraine relations and the Association Agreement (and the DCFTA as its integral part) among the Ukrainian public.
