11.04.2016	RUS	NATO deployed forces in Eastern Europe in order to prepare for war with Russia.	http://bit.ly/1Vi7aOg	inosmi.ru	No evidence given. Since the end of the Cold War, NATO reached out to Russia with a series of partnership initiatives, culminating in the foundation of the NATO-Russia Council in 2002. No other country has such a privileged relationship with NATO. As stated by NATO heads of state and government at the Wales Summit in September 2014, "the Alliance does not seek confrontation and poses no threat to Russia. But we cannot and will not compromise on the principles on which our Alliance and security in Europe and North America rest" (http://bit.ly/1RZsFzv).	Official from Lithuania
11.04.2016	ENG	US military buildup in Europe damages EU-Russia relations.	http://bit.ly/1Vif9em	sputniknews.com	The Russian Federation's violation of international law with the illegal annexation of Crimea and the destabilisation of Ukraine damages EU-Russia relations. As Federica Mogherini, High Representative of the European Union, stressed on 14 March 2016, the full implementation of the Minsk agreements is a key element for any substantial change in EU-Russia relations (http://bit.ly/1QZRbOC). 24.04.2016	ENG	The BBC's documentary presents new evidence suggesting that the downing of the Malaysian Airlines plane MH17 was caused by a shot from a Ukrainian fighter jet rather than a ground-to-air missile.	http://dailym.ai/1MQYiwO // http://bit.ly/1SFkc8o	dailymail.co.uk // express.co.uk	The BBC documentary entitled "The Conspiracy Files: Who Shot Down MH17?" does not claim that Ukraine downed MH17. "Experts in fact tell the programme it was unlikely a Ukrainian fighter jet could have shot down MH17, as they cannot fly at such high altitudes", the BBC's press service confirmed. Quoting BBC's spokesperson, MailOnline's article also acknowledges that "there was only a slim chance that a fighter jet had been involved".
