12.03.2016	ENG	Traditional European cuisine is under attack by Muslim citizens. Proved by the incident in Copenhagen Hospitality College (a cooking school) in Denmark, which required tasting of pork and wine from its Muslim students; and later it was forced by the Danish government to take the pork and wine off the menu.	http://bit.ly/1XaUPJu	strategic-culture.org	The Copenhagen Hospitality College case took place in 2012 and therefore cannot be considered a consequence of the current migrant crisis. The school did not have to take the pork and wine off the menu. It was merely decided that Muslim students do not have to taste pork and wine and can ask their fellow students for help instead: http://bit.ly/1SLYfBn	European Values Think-Tank
13.03.2016	RUS	The Ukrainian government derives its legitimacy not from the people, but from Western leaders.	http://bit.ly/1RoTdeY	od-novorossia.livejournal.com	The 25 May presidential election in Ukraine was a genuine election largely in line with international commitments and it respected fundamental freedoms, despite the hostile security environment in two eastern regions of the country. According to the OSCE, "people of Ukraine had the opportunity to genuinely express their will at the ballot box" (http://bit.ly/1hqCDuR). Similarly, Ukraine's local elections in October 2016 were competitive and generally showed respect for the democratic process (http://bit.ly/1VUL9V5). 31.03.2016	RUS	The European Union has denied Ukraine's EU membership.	http://bit.ly/1M8TjHi	Dni.ru	Dni.ru's source for this claim is an interview the Netherlands Prime Minister Mark Rutte (who is not an EU representative) gave the Dutch publication NU.nl. According to the PM "the Netherlands is against [Ukraine's EU] membership, because we believe that Ukraine should have good relations with Europe and with Russia. This is not possible if Ukraine is in the European Union". Ukraine has not filed an application for EU membership, and plans to do so only after 2020 (http://bit.ly/1UBBZ0n).	StopFake.org

31.03.2016	RUS	The head of the EU Delegation in Ukraine Jan Tombinski has admitted the Free Trade Agreement with Ukraine is futile: the Free Trade Zone is a complete failure because impoverished Ukrainians don't buy European goods and domestic companies are not ready to enter the European market.	http://bit.ly/1RSZ8HZ	ukraina.ru	Ukraina.ru completely misquoted Tombinski who never called the Free Trade Zone a failure. What Tombinski actually said is: "Today we can say that the free trade zone, the open market with the EU is not being used as we wanted and expected it to be used. And all because of the many structural weaknesses of the Ukrainian economy." He explained that the zone is encountering obstacles. He is however optimistic and points out that Europe is ready to help identify those Ukrainian businesses, who can export their goods to the EU. "Nothing will be given just like that; the European market is very competitive. Use the support, including the material support, that Ukraine receives" Tombinski advised (http://bit.ly/222utuq).	StopFake.org
02.04.2016	RUS	Ukraine is to pay 57,317.50 pounds sterling to former president Viktor Yanukovich and his two sons because of the negligence of Ukrainian Justice Ministry personnel who were forced to withdraw Ukraine's law suit against Yanukovich. As a result of this negligence the European court ordered Ukraine to "offset the costs incurred by the plaintiffs as a result of Ukraine filing a law suit against them."	http://bit.ly/1PPFGrl	Former Ukrainian Justice Minister Olena Lukash announced on her Facebook page	Ukraine's Justice Ministry published a rebuttal of Lukash's claim, calling it a figment of her imagination. According to the Justice Ministry, there is no decision by the European Court ordering any compensation to Yanukovich as there is no ruling against Ukraine and in favor of Yanukovich and Lukash's claim is aimed at whitewashing Yanukovich's image and blackening that of Ukraine (http://bit.ly/1RYoAsJ).	StopFake.org
