Senior Government staffs get Management Training.

The European Union Aviation Security Mission in South Sudan (EUAVSEC) has facilitated an Executive Management Course for 8 senior Government officials, to equip them with knowledge on administration, human resources management, management tools, operations and implementation of well-defined organizational strategic structures.

The five days training course held in Entebbe, Uganda from 21-25 October 2013 was conducted by specialists from the Danish National Police.

The participants included the Deputy Minister of Transport, Roads & Bridges, Simon Mijok Mijak; Undersecretary in the Ministry of Transport, Roads & Bridges, Capt. David Hassan Martin; the Chairman of South Sudan Civil Aviation Authority (CAA), General Agasio Akol; CAA Board of Directors; and the Acting Chief Executive Officer of the CAA, Patrick Lotwa.

In his opening remarks, the Deputy Minister of Transport Roads & Bridges, Simon Mijok Mijak said the capacity building courses being facilitated by EUAVSEC are important steps in institutional capacity building to improve aviation security in South Sudan.

EUAVSEC assists the government of South Sudan to raise the security at Juba International Airport to internationally accepted standards, which will also enable the increased flow of people, goods and boost trade.
