

Brigadier General
Jean-Marc BACQUET
Force Commander EUFOR RCA

Brigadier General BACQUET was born on January 28th 1961 in HAM (France).

He is married to Camille and they have a daughter called Mathilde.

Military career:

1976 – 1981: Pupil at the military high school of AUTUN.

1981 – 1983: Officer Cadet at the military academy of Saint-Cyr.

1983 – 1984: Platoon leader training – logistics school in TOURS.

1984 – 1988: Platoon leader – Traffic Control Regiment 601 in ACHERN, Germany.

1988 – 1990: Platoon leader – Reserve Officer Training Battalion in COETQUIDAN.

1990 – 1993: Company commander and Staff officer for operations – Traffic Control Regiment 602 in DIJON.

1993 – 1995: Branch Chief Movement and Deployment – Logistics Command, Rapid Reaction Force HQ in MAISONS LAFFITTE.

1995 – 1997: Student at the Command and General Staff College – Ecole militaire in PARIS.

1997 – 1999: Staff officer in charge of division level exercises – HQ Training Centre in MAILLY.

1999 – 2004: Staff officer and DCOS Support – Joint Forces Headquarters in CREIL.

2004 – 2006: Commanding officer – Logistic Regiment 515 in ANGOULEME.

2006 – 2009: Branch chief J4 – Permanent Joint HQ in PARIS.

2009 – 2011: Deputy DCOS Support – Rapid Reaction Corps France in LILLE.

2011 – 2013: Branch chief logistics – Land Forces Command in LILLE.

2013 - ...: commander of the 1st Logistics Brigade in MONTLHERY.

On the 15th of December 2014, Brigadier General Jean-Marc BACQUET has been appointed EU Force Commander for the European Union military operation in the Central African Republic (EUFOR RCA).