

CV BG MORENA MAURIZIO

Brigadier General Maurizio MORENA was born on the 26th of July 1961 in Trieste.

He attended the 162th Class (1980 – 1982) at the Military Academy in Modena and the Specialization School in Turin (1982 - 1984).

His first appointment as First Lieutenant was Platoon Commander at the 5th Paratrooper Battalion and then, as Captain, Company Commander in the same unit (1985 – 1990).

From 1990 to 1992 he was Cadets' Company Commander at the Military Academy in Modena.

Leaving the Military Academy he served one year as UN Military Observer in India and Pakistan in UNMOGIP (1992 – 1993).

He attended the Staff Course, the Senior Staff Course and the Joint Senior Staff Course and later he was the Liaison Officer of the Italian Army General Staff to the Director General Doctrine and Development (DGD&D) of the British Army in Upavon - UK (1997 – 1999).

Back to Italy, from 1999 to 2000 he was the Commanding Officer of the 5th Paratrooper Battalion within the 186th Paratrooper Regiment. In that period he was deployed twice: Bosnia Herzegovina (SFOR) first and Albania (KFOR) later.

From 2000 to 2003 he was appointed Chief of Staff of the Airmobile Brigade and then Chief of Staff of the Multinational Brigade South West in Prizren (KFOR).

As Colonel, he was the Commanding Officer of the newly formed 66th Airmobile Regiment from 2003 to 2005. In that period he was also deployed in Iraq to take part in the Operation "ANTICA BABILONIA" as Chief of the Security Sector Reform Department.

In 2005 he was appointed Commander of the forming Army Special Operations Forces Command in Florence and in 2009 he moved to the Operational Land Forces Headquarters in Verona as Head of the Special Operations Branch.

Commissioned Brigadier General in 2010 he was Deputy Chief of Staff for Operations at the Operational Land Forces Headquarters.

From 2011 to 2013 he was assigned as Deputy Commander to the Infantry School in Rome and then deployed as Deputy DCOS OPS SUPPORT to ISAF Joint Command in Kabul.

Since November 2013 he is the Deputy Commander of the Military Academy.