“Die Wand” (The Wall)

by Julian Pölsler
(premiered at the 2012 Berlinale)

Thursday,
April 18th
@ 7pm

The contemplative alpine drama The Wall, based on Marlen Haushofer's 1962 book is a riveting, emotionally involving and intensely cinematic story. Martina Gedeck portrays a woman who while visiting a mountain valley becomes isolated by a force-field, an invisible wall, behind which there appears to be no sign of life, now separating her from the rest of the world. Left behind with a dog, a cat and a cow, she must try to survive alone in the forest.
