

EU Delegation's Farewell reception for Deputy to the Head of Delegation Ms Vanda Siposova 27 January 2016

The EU Delegation to the Council of Europe held a Farewell reception for Deputy to the Head of Delegation Ms. Vanda Siposova on Wednesday 27 January 2016.

Ms Siposova has been working at the Delegation for the last year and a half through the European External Action Service JPD program and her contribution to the Delegation's work has been remarkable. Numerous guests arrived to say farewell to Ms Siposova who had become an important part of the EU Delegation.

Ambassador and Head of Delegation Jari Vilen thanked Ms Siposova for the tremendous work and handed her an album of pictures taken throughout her time at the EUDEL. He said he regrets having to say goodbye to Ms Siposova but is happy to welcome another talent, Mr Benjamin Bollendorf from Luxembourg.

Moreover, Ambassador Vilen thanked Mr Maxime Lebrun and Mr Nils Blyth for their excellent work at the Delegation during their 5-month internships that are now coming to an end.

The EUDEL has been happy to have the talented Ms Siposova, Mr Lebrun and Mr Blyth and wishes all of them the best of luck in the future!
