

Luisella PAVAN-WOOLFE

Nationality	Italian
Education	Graduated in Political Science from Padova University - International Law specialism
Professional experience in the European Institutions	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• European External Action Service 2010-present: Ambassador, Head of the EU delegation to the Council of Europe</li><li>• External Relations DG 2007 –2009: Ambassador, Representative of the European Commission to the Council of Europe</li><li>• Employment, Social Affairs &amp; Equal Opportunities DG 2005-2006: Director for Antidiscrimination, Equality between women and men and Civil Society 2001-2004: Director for International and Horizontal Affairs 1998-2000: Acting and ad interim Director, National Employment Monitoring and European Social Fund operations 1992-2000: Head of Unit, Social Fund</li><li>• Secretariat General 1980-1992: Principal administrator, then Head of Unit, internal coordination</li><li>• Environment and Consumer Protection Service 1979-1980: Administrator, International Relations 1975-1979: Desk officer, natural resources management</li><li>• Transport DG 1975: Administrator, competition unit</li></ul>
Professional experience before joining the European Institutions	1974-1975 : Assistant professor of Anglo-American Law, 1970-1973 : law firm trainee
Other	Writer of articles on European subjects; awarded 1998 European prize by the Bellisario Foundation for Women's Entrepreneurs