الحكومة تواصل مشاوراتها حول وثيقة المبادئ تمهيدا لمؤتمر موسع المادة 9 بعد تعديلها : يؤخذ رأى القوات المسلحة فى تشريعاتها

القاهرة - منقوب «الأهرام» : فى محاولة أخيرة لتحقيق توافق وطنى حول وثيقة المبادئ الدستورية، تواصل الحكومة مشاوراتها مع مختلف القوى السياسية وتعد ٣ جلسات للحوار هذا الأسبوع تبدأ اليوم، وتنتهى يوم الخميس المقبل، تمهيدا لعقد مؤتمر موسع لكل الأحزاب والتيارات السياسية حول القضايا المتعلقة بإقرار الوثيقة.

وقد اعتبر الدكتور على السلمي نائب رئيس الوزراء للتنمية السياسية والتحول الديمقراطي، أن الظاهرة الليبونية التى خرجت امس الأول بقيادة الإخوان والسلفيين، أثرت سلبا على الجهود والتفان من أجل التوافق، وقال إن القضية الآن هى مكاسب سياسية وعقاب ومغلوب وإثارة مشكلات حول أمور متفق عليها من قبل.

وأوضح أنه جرى الاتفاق فى المادة الأولى على أن تكون جمهورية مصر العربية دولة ديمقراطية تقوم على

الوطنية وسيادة القانون، وحذف كلمة منية بناء على طلب حزب الحرية والعدالة وغيره من الأحزاب السلفية، واستخدام كلمة ديمقراطية التى وردت فى وثيقة الأهرام الشريف، وقد أكد إعلان المبادئ، الذى تنشر «الأهرام» نصحه بالكامل، أن مصر دولة ديمقراطية تقوم على الوطنية وسيادة القانون. كما تضمنت المبادئ أن السيادة للشعب وحده، وأنه مصدر السلطات وأن النظام السياسي للدولة جمهورية ديمقراطية يقوم على التوازن بين السلطات والتداول السلمى للسلطة ونظام تعدد الأحزاب.

كما تضمنت الوثيقة فى بندها التاسع، أن الدولة وحدها هى التى تنشئ القوات المسلحة التى هى ملك للشعب ويهدفها حماية البلاد وسلامة أراضيها وأمنها والحفاظ على وحدتها، وأنه لا يجوز لأى هيئة أو جماعة أو حزب إنشاء تشكيلات عسكرية أو شبه عسكرية. وأن للقوات المسلحة مكانتها الخاصة وشؤونها

التفصيلية المتصلة بالأمن القومى والتي يجب أن تراعى عند مناقشة أمورها الفنية، وسياسيتها، والقوات المسلحة كإحدى مؤسسات الدولة تتكلم بالصواب الدستورية والتشريعية ويكون لها مجلس أعلى يختص دون غيره بالنظر فى جميع شؤونها، ويؤخذ رأيه فى التشريعات الخاصة بها قبل إصدارها.

وقد أعلن السلمي معايير تشكيل الجمعية التأسيسية لوضع الدستور، حيث تشكل من ١٠٠ عضوا من ممثلى الأحزاب السياسية والمستقلين فى مجلسي الشعب والتشورى، ويترجم من ممثلى الهيئات القضائية ويصدر مجلس الشعب فى أول انعقاد له قانونا بقواعد وأجراءات ترشيح واختيار أعضاء الجمعية التأسيسية ويختار أعضاؤها بأغلبية الأعضاء المنتخبين فى مجلسي الشعب والتشورى.

Tahrir Street Fight Ends In Police Retreat

Yesterday clashes erupted when police forces tried to disrupt the sit-in in Tahrir square's garden facing the governmental complex. The sit-in was started by revolution victims, their families and youth coalitions that call for ending military trials for civilians.

The Rioters, as described by Al-Ahram, clashed with security forces, hurled rocks at shops and Molotov at policemen. They destroyed public utilities, building fronts and set cars on fire.

Protestors set a police car on fire and seized the fire arms and other tools it contained. CSF, Central Security Forces, responded using tear gas and rubber bullets.

Ministry of interior issued a statement saying that the police exercised the utmost level of restraint with protesters and used only tear gas to disperse them.

Groups of youth from nearby areas joined the demonstration, chanting against SCAF and police.

Presidential candidate, Hazem Abu Ismail, called his supporters to join demonstrations.

A march of Salafis joined the demonstration, chanting for an Islamic state.

After bloody clashes with CSF, protestors now dominate Tahrir square calling for an open sit in.

One protestor died, age 23, another 750 were injured, including 40 policemen.

CSF arrested 18 protestors.

Clashes in Tahrir

15,000 protestors took over Tahrir square, yesterday, after violent clashes with security forces.

Security forces dispersed revolution victims' sit-in in the morning. However, Protestors gathered again after 10,000 policemen retreated to secure the Ministry of Interior.

Pre-revolution atmosphere dominated in the square after CSF used tear gas and rubber bullets to disperse protestors.

Supporters of Presidential candidates were banned from setting stages and using speakers.

Presidential candidate, Selim El-Awa, was in the square and called the Minister of Interior to submit his resignation. Some protestors demanded El-Awa to leave the square.

Assistant Interior Minister interpreted this as an attempt to postpone parliamentary elections.

Prime Minister, Essam Sharaf called on protestors to evacuate the square.

Demonstrations were held in numerous governorates, supporting Tahrir protestors.

Over 2000 protestors in Alexandria marched to Alexandria security directorate, chanting "The People Demand The Overthrow Of Military Regime"

676 were injured, 442 of them were received medical treatment in Tahrir field hospital.

Islamists and Salafis Reject El-Selmi's Document

Mohamed Mosry, Freedom and Justice party head, and Mohamed Abd El-Maksood, Salafi leader, asserted that the new modifications in El-Selmi's document were not discussed during the meeting with Prime Minister Essam Sharaf, last Thursday.

They disapproved the new criteria for choosing the Constituent Assembly.

The new document states that Constituent Assembly members should be approved by two thirds of elected parliament members, which is next to impossible.

Figures representing Democratic Alliance, Freedom and justice, Gama'a Islamiyah, Noor party and Renaissance party expressed their total disapproval of the document.

They said that after Friday's million-man demonstration, the entire document should be discarded.

El-Selmi's Document Modified

Ali El-Selmi, vice prime minister for political development and democratic change, announced amendments in the Constitutional Principles Document. He declared that it was only meant as a guideline, non binding document. He announced new criteria for choosing members of the Constituent Assembly.

The Constitution Principles Declaration states “The Arab Republic of Egypt is a democratic state”, removing the phrase “civilian state”. He also amended the articles related to the Armed Forces.

The coming few days will witness discussions with political forces to reach an agreement over the modified document.
