Winning photos of EU Delegation Photo Competition features at Sawy Cultural Wheel

The winning photos of the sixth Photography Competition organised by the European Union Delegation to Egypt will be featured in Sawy Cultural Wheel from Saturday 01 March till 09 March 2014. This comes in recognition to the amateur photographers who participated and won the first twelve ranks in the competition titled: "Visions of a Shared Heritage".

Last week, Ambassador James Moran, European Union Head of Delegation, held an award ceremony at the Conrad Hotel for the winners. The ambassador awarded the first winner a SLR Digital Camera, the second winner received an iPad 4 while the third was awarded a laptop. Others received certificates and small tokens.

Ambassador Moran said at the award ceremony: "I was delighted to see the number of responses to this theme, and the artistic merit and quality of all those who submitted entries. The EU is a strong supporter of Egypt's culture and art scene through a number of different cultural projects it sponsors."

The 12 winning photos were printed in a luxurious desk calendar for 2014, which has been issued by the European Union Delegation in Egypt.
