

Danièle SMADJA

From 1 December 2009: Ambassador, Head of the Delegation of the European Union to India ó Accredited also to Bhutan with Residence in New Delhi.

From 20 September 2007 – November 2009: Ambassador, Head of the Delegation of the European Commission to India, Nepal and Bhutan.

July 2002 – September 2007: Director for öMultilateral Relations and Human Rightsö, Directorate General for External Relations, European Commission.

November 1998 – June 2002: Ambassador, Head of the Delegation of the European Commission to Canada.

January 1997 – October 1998: Head of the Unit öInternational Affairs, Trade and Environmentö, Directorate General for Environment.

September 1992 – December 1996: Assistant to the Director General of Directorate General for Environment.

September 1989 – September 1992: Head of the sector: öMultilateral aspectsö in the unit in charge of the negotiations and management of textiles agreements; Textiles negotiator during the Uruguay Round negotiations; Directorate General for External Relations.

March – September 1989: In charge of external aspects of the internal market, Directorate General for External Relations.

January – March 1989: Assisting the Head of the Unit responsible for relations with China.

September 1987 – December 1988: Member of the Private Office of the Commissioner in charge of External Relations.

September 1986 – September 1987: Assistant to the Deputy Director General of Directorate General for External Relations.

July 1983 – September 1986: First Secretary at the Delegation of the European Commission to the United Nations in New York.

August 1978 – July 1983: Administrator responsible for relations with Turkey and Yugoslavia, Directorate General for External Relations

1er August 1978: Join the European Commission.

Danièle Smadja has a degree in Political Sciences with a specialisation on international relations. She is also a post-graduate in European Studies from the College of Europe (Bruges).

She is French and speaks English and Italian.