

European Union to launch a drawing competition for school children in Patna

Patna, 13 August 2013: The Delegation of European Union to India will launch a drawing competition for school children in the city of Patna. To be organized from 19 August 2013 till 5th September 2013, this competition will be held under the twin themes of – 'What Can I Do for My Mother' and 'My City, My Country & the threat of Climate Change'.

The competition aims at creating awareness amongst the school going children (in the age group of 9-10 years), on globally relevant subjects - women empowerment and climate change. These pertinent issues are presented to them in an easy to grasp themes which they can comfortably illustrate.

Children can choose either of the two themes that inspire them the most and create their work of art. They will need to create this within 75 minutes, in their school premises under the supervision of their teachers.

The winners will be announced at a special event where the Ambassador of European Union will felicitate the winners. All the participants will receive certificates, the top 3 drawings will win bicycles and the subsequent three (4-6 positions) will receive either a cricket or a badminton kit.

The EU drawing competition is organised in cooperation with local partner - Urban Espace India, which has a good network in Bihar.
