

EUROPEAN UNION

Delegation of the European Union to the Republic of Lebanon

Beirut, 17 April 2015

PRESS RELEASE

Submit your contribution and have a say in the future of EU relations with Lebanon and all neighbouring countries

The European Union invites public authorities, civil society, think tanks, social partners, business and academic communities, other relevant stakeholders and interested members of the public in Lebanon to respond to the consultation paper entitled "Towards a new European Neighbourhood Policy" and have a say in the future of EU relations with Lebanon and neighbouring countries.

The joint consultation paper by the European Commission and the EU High Representative Federica Mogherini was adopted following the launch of the consultation process on the future of the European Neighbourhood Policy (ENP) in March. It sets out some preliminary findings in terms of lessons learnt from ENP to date, as well as key questions for discussion with partners and stakeholders that form the basis of their contributions.

The contributions should be submitted in an electronic format to: delegation-lebanon-consultations@eeas.europa.eu in any official EU language. The deadline for submission is 30 June 2015.

Please indicate clearly on your submission the following information about yourself:

- Your name or the name of the submitting organisation
- Type of respondent (public authority, civil society organisation, think tank, association, citizen)
- Country of residence or location of headquarters
- Your contact details including an e-mail address

Submissions that are sent anonymously will not be taken into account.

Received contributions will be published on the Internet. It is important to read the specific privacy statement attached to this consultation for information on how your personal data and contribution will be dealt with.

For your contribution, please refer to the questions listed in the joint consultation paper:
