Congratulations to our Head of Delegation, Ambassador Angelina Eichhorst, on her appointment by EU High Representative Federica Mogherini as Director for Western Europe, the Western Balkans and Turkey

Federica Mogherini, High Representative of the European Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy/Vice-President of the Commission, announced yesterday the appointment of Head of Delegation Angelina Eichhorst as Director for Western Europe, the Western Balkans and Turkey in the European External Action Service (EEAS), as well as 16 senior appointments to European Union Delegations in the context of this year's rotation. A further 23 appointments of Heads of EU Delegations have also been decided and will be announced in due course, depending on the receipt of agrément from the third countries involved.

The appointments coincided with the announcement by the High Representative of the adoption of a modified organisational chart of the EEAS.
