Following the January 2014 donor conference in Kuwait the allocation of the European Union and its 28 Member States has reached €2.8 billion in response to the conflict in Syria and its spill-over into neighbouring countries – €1.3 billion through the various instruments of the European Commission and almost €1.5 billion from the 28 EU Member States. While the bulk of the funds are committed to humanitarian interventions inside Syria, an increasing amount goes towards alleviating the pressures in neighbouring countries, Lebanon, Jordan, Turkey and Iraq.

LEBANON SPECIFIC NUMBERS

Out of the 2,909,098 Syrian refugees in the region to date (registered or awaiting registration by the UNHCR) more than 1,122,221 have requested assistance from UNHCR in Lebanon by 7 July 2014 (regularly updated numbers can be found on <https://data.unhcr.org/syrianrefugees/regional.php>). In addition there are more than 53,000 Palestinian refugees from Syria. The number of Lebanese returnees is estimated at around 17,500.

So far, the European Commission has allocated €319.1 million to the response in Lebanon:

- €156.8 million has already been allocated through the European Neighbourhood and Partnership Instrument (ENPI) and the Instrument for Stability (IFS) budgets focusing on assisting Lebanese structures respond to the crisis. These funds come in addition to the regular annual allocation for Lebanon.

- The Directorate General of the European Commission for Humanitarian Aid and Civil Protection (ECHO) has so far contracted and pledged €162.3 million for humanitarian assistance in Lebanon.
