

The EU and New Zealand: shared values in a complex world

A panel discussion

The EU Chargé d'Affaires; the British High Commissioner & Governor of Pitcairn; and the Polish Ambassador will explain the EU's relationship with New Zealand by bringing the EU's security and prosperity agenda and our shared values into a modern day context.

Thursday, 29 May 2014

5.40 – 6.40PM

Lecture Theatre One, Rutherford House, Victoria University Pipitea Campus
23 Lambton Quay, Wellington

Entry to Rutherford House is via Bunny Street or Lambton Quay

Light refreshments will be provided at the end of proceedings
RSVP (acceptances only) by 26 May to nziia@vuw.ac.nz

5.40PM INTRODUCTION

Hon Sir Doug Kidd, President NZIIA

5.45PM SECURITY

Mr Michalis Rokas, Chargé d'Affaires, Delegation of the European Union to New Zealand

5.55PM SHARED VALUES

Her Excellency Mrs Vicki Treadell, British High Commissioner

6.05PM PROSPERITY

Her Excellency Mrs Beata Stoczyńska, Ambassador of Poland

6.15PM Q & A

6.45 – 7.30PM REFRESHMENTS

Mezzanine Foyer, Rutherford House

We acknowledge assistance from Victoria University for providing a venue and the Delegation of the European Union to NZ, the British High Commission, NZ European Union Centres Network; and the Embassy of Poland for supporting this event.

