Families today may come in all shapes and sizes but remain the bedrock of any society whether in Europe or the Philippines. Families are present in many a joyous moment and offer all the comfort in the darkest times.

This year, the family is the main focus for many of the films being presented under Cine Europa. We aim to showcase the family's continued importance and significance in or lives in spite of its many permutations and the ever-changing nature of parent-child relationships.

Fifteen European countries including 13 European Union member states have presented 23 films that will be screened at a record nine cities across the country from September to November. Events on the ground prevented us from taking the festival to Zamboanga last year but are confident we will succeed this time around.

Another innovation this year is the expansion of the Cine Europa to Leyte. This is thanks to cooperation with the Visayas State University in Baybay that will bring European film culture to new audiences in southern Leyte. We are also very keen to plan additional screenings to reach residents of the worst affected areas typhoon Haiyan in Tacloban.

And because Cine Europa is in the Philippines not just to entertain, but to inform and educate, film experts will share their insights about European and Philippine film culture in Shangri-La Plaza, Mandaluyong on 12 and 20 September. The educational component of the Festival seeks to give young Filipinos considering a career in film, greater insights about the industry and the opportunities for co-operation with their European counter-parts. This year the initiative will extend beyond Manila with sessions being held for the first time at the University of San Carlos, Cebu on 10 October.

It is encouraging to see that thanks to the support of our partners and the enthusiasm of the general public, Cine Europa, now in its 17th year, continues to grow and evolve as one of the premiere Film Festivals in the Philippines.

Občanský průkaz (Identity Card)

CZECH REPUBLIC

DIRECTOR Ondřej Trojan // CAST Libor Kovář, Matouš Vrba, Jan Vlček, Jakub Šárka // RUNNING TIME 137 min.

Občanský průkaz (Identity Card) is a 2010 Czech bitter comedy film by Ondřej Trojan based on a story by Petr Šabach. The movie is set in communist Czechoslovakia in the 1970s and gives a clear picture of the sociopolitical environment of that period. After the short attempt to reform the political system was brutally stopped in 1968 by the invasion of Soviet Russia, new period of communism totality was started - Marked formally with big ideals, which nobody trusted anymore; but based on every day creepy repression, reaching into even minor details of private and social life of everybody.

Witnessing their fathers' generation loss and either social or moral degradation, the new generation is looking for their own response. Their resistance is symbolized by long hair, social non-conformity and prohibited music.

Die andere Heimat (Home from Home)

GERMANY

DIRECTOR Edgar Reitz // CAST Jan Dieter Schneider, Antonia Bill, Maximilian Scheidt // RUNNING TIME 225 min.

German filmmaker Edgar Reitz's latest epic 'Heimat' project is a four-hour black-and-white film that looks at life in rural Schabbach in the mid-1800s.

Celebrated German auteur Edgar Reitz again returns to the fictional Hunsrueck village of Schabbach and the Simon family in Home from Home: Chronicle of a Vision (Die andere Heimat: Chronik einer Sehnsucht), though the events take place in the 19th rather than the 20th century, of which Reitz is one of the foremost German-language chroniclers.

Though in several ways related to the previous Heimat films, this beautifully shot black-and-white feature is accessible even for those unfamiliar with Reitz's previous work. In its essence, it's the story of a poor but knowledge-hungry son of a provincial blacksmith in the 1840s who dreams of emigrating to South America, though the almost four-hour film also offers a look at the protagonist's extended family and their neighbors, acquaintances and lovers that again suggests much wider things about German (or, rather, pre-Germany Prussian) society as a whole.

Tüskevár (Thorn Castle)

HUNGARY

DIRECTOR Zacharias Mavroeidis // CAST Mihalis Oikonomou, Katerina Mavrogiorgi, Kathrin Suckfiel // RUNNING TIME 94 min.

An updated version of one of Hungary's most beloved young adult novels (Tüskevár), Thorn Castle tells the tale of two boys who come of age one summer in the countryside.

Tutajos is an excellent student whose parents decide to reward his academic achievements with a vacation to the countryside. Robbed of his gadgets and easy city-lifestyle, Tutajos finds himself completely out of his element – until a goodhearted ranger named Matula teaches him how to get back to nature. As Tutajos' best friend Bütök joins him on his vacation, the two boys learn the joys of camping, hunting, and living off of the land.

Thorn Castle is a gentle story of friendship and maturity, demonstrating that the key to communing with nature is taming the wilderness within oneself.

Una sconfinata giovinezza (A Second Childhood)

ITALY

DIRECTOR Pupi Avati // CAST Fabrizio Bentivoglio, Francesca Neri, Serena Grandi
RUNNING TIME 98 min.

Lino Settembre and his wife Chicca lead a tranquil married life without any serious problems. They are satisfied with their careers. He's the sports editor at the Messenger and she's a professor of medieval languages at the Università Gregoriana. The only true disappointment in their 25 years of marriage has been the lack of children. They used the situation to strengthen their marriage instead of letting it become real problem. But now, in a totally unexpected way, they're presented with a big worry: Lino is having some really serious memory problems that little by little get worse and start to interrupt the routine of their daily lives and activities both at home and at work. At first both Lino and Chicca decide to laugh it off but the problem manifests itself more and more until, after careful attention and in-depth medical exams, they receive the diagnosis of degenerative brain disease that's destroying his brain.

Scialla (Easy!)

ITALY

DIRECTOR Francesco Bruni // CAST Fabrizio Bentivoglio, Barbara Bobulova, Filippo Scicchitano, Vinicio Marchioni // RUNNING TIME 95 min.

Bruno Beltrame has given up on life, and for a good long time. Of his old talent as a writer, all that remains is just enough for him to complete on commission "books by others", biographies of footballers and television celebrities (he is currently writing one for Tina, a famous Slovakian porn star who's become a producer of hardcore movies). His passion for teaching has given way to the listless humdrum of private lessons given at home to equally listless students, among whom figures the fifteen year old Luca, as ignorant as the others, but lively and irreverent.

One beautiful day the boy's mother turns up, like a ghost from the past, with a revelation that turns Bruno's world on its head: Luca is his son, a son whose existence he never knew about... And not only: the woman is about to leave for a six month job as an aid-worker in Africa, and the boy can't and won't go down there with her. The woman asks Bruno to put him up in his home and take care of him, but without revealing his real identity as the boy's father.

And so begins an unlikely living arrangement between the apathetic ex-teacher and the restless teenager; six months during which Luca will find himself face to face with a male adult figure and Bruno, despite himself, can't help but take care of his secret son, who above all seems destined to get himself into big trouble...

ROMANIA

DIRECTOR Calin Peter Netzer // CAST Luminita Gheorghiu, Bogdan Dumitrache, Natasa Raab // RUNNING TIME 112 min.

Seeing a way to reassert control over her adult son's life when he faces manslaughter charges, an affluent Romanian woman sets out on a campaign of emotional and social manipulation to keep him out of prison, navigating the waters of power, corruption and influence. Child's Pose is based on the sense of loss of parents who have to send their children away-physically and psychologically. The parent-child relationship is re-assessed through a son in his 30s that wants to escape from his mother, who in turn wants to keep her adult son by her side. The mother's character is quite familiar, but this film is unique in that the director delicately portrays how the controlling mother wants to deny that her son is destined to leave her by following the characters' emotional flows and gazing at their twisted desires. Luminita Gheorghiu turns in an extraordinary performance in playing a mother struggling to "save" her son. Heading to the conclusion, the film shows that the unhealthy mother-son relationship is not that simple when it comes to matters of humane duty.

Lóve

SLOVAKIA

DIRECTOR Jakub Kroner // CAST Michal Nemtuda, Kristína Svarinská, Jakub Gogál, Dušan Cinkota // RUNNING TIME 90 min.

In the Slovak language, the word “love” has two meanings – it is slang for money, and also means love. Aptly, this romantic drama intermingles both.

Telling the story of Mato, a young gangster living in East Bratislava, Lóve portrays a life without rules. Despite a profitable occupation and the ability to obtain all he wants in life, there’s something missing. For all his material gains, he yearns for more, to experience love. Life however, has other plans and Mato is forced to assess what truly matters to him. Having found love, he dreams of leaving behind his criminal past and embarking upon a normal life.

Directed by young Slovak filmmaker Jakub Kroner and shot entirely in Bratislava, Lóve is filled with thrilling physically-charged scenes, an incredibly gripping plot ala Mission Impossible and outstanding performances which mesh to create a driven and compelling one-of-a-kind action drama.

El lince perdido (The Missing Lynx)

SPAIN

DIRECTOR Raul Garcia & Manuel Sicilia // CAST David Robles, Cecilia Santiago, Conchi López // RUNNING TIME 97 min.

After one of his countless mishaps, Félix (Felix in the English version), a clumsy and unlucky Iberian lynx, is transported to the animal recovery shelter at the Doñana National Park, along with Beeea (Beeety in the English version), a daredevil goat, and Astarté, a brave falcon with an injured wing. However, the national park had undergone security measures while Félix was gone. Mysterious animal kidnappings have occurred at other national parks and animal preservations, which had caused the shelter to be turned into a prison-like structure, leading Félix's paranoid chameleon friend Gus to believe that their human caretakers are in a conspiracy to keep the animals locked up for experiments. While the others are skeptical of Gus's claims, a female lynx, Lincesa (Lynxette in the English version), is brought to the shelter; she and Félix begin to form an attraction to each other.

SWITZERLAND & FRANCE

DIRECTOR Yann Arthus-Bertrand & Michael Pitiot

NARRATED BY Josh Duhamel // RUNNING TIME 99 min.

Can we imagine a film that would change the way people look at the ocean? Can we explain simply, to everyone, the greatest natural mystery of our planet? And lastly, can we help our children believe in a better and more sustainable world tomorrow?

This is the triple challenge of a new cinema adventure, sponsored by Omega (Switzerland), and signed by Yann Arthus-Bertrand and editor-in-chief Michael Pitiot, who brings with him the scientific missions of TARA, a unique pool of researchers, oceanographers and biologists from several countries. Thanks to its astonishing photography, the film takes us on a magnificent and unprecedented journey into the heart of the least known regions of our planet.

The film narrates the most marvelous and also the most terrifying human experiences of our time. Filmed in extreme geographical conditions all over the globe, it describes the modern Odyssey of people who go out to discover their blue planet. The film is also a plea for humanity to respect the world in which we live.
