European Union Ambassador: Ramadan is a month for forgiveness and continued search for internal peace in Sudan

Ambassador Tomas Ulicny, Head of Delegation of the European Union to Sudan greeted all the people of Sudan on the occasion of the holy month of Ramadan which is celebrated by all the 1.6 billion Muslims followers around the world including 44 million living in Europe.

"Ramadan is an opportunity to renew our respect to all religions and faiths around the world. It delivers a message of tolerance and forgiveness. It renews our hope for continued dialogue and understanding between us."

"The holy month is a true opportunity for all Sudanese to rise above divisions, think of Sudanese in all regions of Sudan who are in a desperate need for safety, security and dignified living."

"Ramadan is an opportunity to look into our differences and unite over our common humanity," he said.
