

The EU Cultural Programme 2012

The Cultural Activities programme calls for dialogue and exchange between cultures and promotes intercultural cooperation between the European Union and the Mediterranean partners. The EU recognizes the importance of cultural and artistic projects, and has funded numerous projects across the occupied Palestinian territory (oPt) and in the region. Such actions help maintain the spirit and tradition of Palestinian customs and art while contributing to the development of Palestinians' cultural community. They also help preserve and reinforce a sense of Palestinian identity as well as foster acknowledgment of Palestinian culture throughout the Mediterranean area. In order to realize the programme's objectives, the European Union provides funds to both local and regional organizers, for a wide range of cultural actions including dance, music, film festivals, theatre productions, exhibitions etc.

The grants are awarded on the basis of competitive annual call for proposals.

The Global Objective of this Call for Proposal is the reinforcement of the regional cooperation and South-South integration through the promotion of gender -aware dialogue and exchange between cultures.

The specific objectives of this Call for Proposals are:

- A The protection and promotion of Palestinian cultural heritage, identity and cultural life and creation of awareness both locally and internationally.
- B The promotion of intercultural cooperation between the oPt, the EU and other Mediterranean partners to strengthen the visibility of the Euro-Mediterranean Partnership.

In line with the strategy of the Palestinian Authority for the culture sector, proposals under this call must address at least one of the priorities below:

- Promotion of the creativity of Palestinian artists, men and women, through exchange and cooperation between contemporary artists in the oPt and the Euro-Mediterranean region.
- Preservation, awareness and visibility of the Palestinian cultural heritage both at national and international level involving especially youth, women and children.
- Promotion of the cultural participation for the consolidation of social cohesion, including promotion of culture in primary/secondary schools curricula.
- Promotion of gender equality, including combating stereotypes, in all spheres of the society thought cultural productions.
