Local EU Statement on the Presidential Elections in El Salvador

The European Union Delegation issues the following statement in agreement with the EU Heads of Mission in El Salvador:

The EU Delegation notes the high turnout in the second round of the presidential elections held on March 9, demonstrating the strong desire of Salvadorans to exercise their political rights.

We commend the electoral authorities for the effective manner electoral day and the subsequent provisional and final scrutiny was managed, and recognise the contribution of the political parties to the orderly and peaceful conduct of the elections. The Supreme Electoral Tribunal and other responsible institutions must now complete their task according to constitutional and legal provisions.

We call upon political leaders and other actors involved to respect the work of these institutions and the will of the Salvadoran people. Once the final outcome is declared, we expect all parties to engage in a constructive and democratic spirit in the pursuit of policies benefitting all Salvadorans.

The EU Delegation reiterates its commitment to continue working with El Salvador, contributing to sustainable development and to the wellbeing of all its citizens.
