

EU Car Manufacturing in the US is Big Business

All roads lead to EU car companies investing billions of dollars in US car manufacturing, exporting millions of cars, creating thousands of jobs across the country, and spurring research and development.

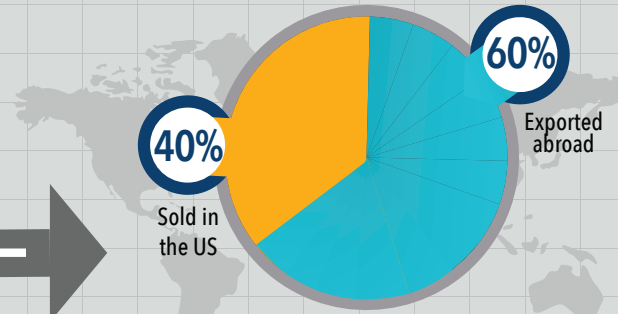

European Car Makers Produced 1.8 MILLION cars in the US in 2017 accounting for 16% of all US car manufacturing.

Exports of US-Produced EU Cars

The majority of EU cars produced in the US are exported, including back to the EU. By value, BMW is the biggest exporter of cars in the US.

Significant Recent EU Automotive Investments in the US Include:

SOUTH CAROLINA

Largest BMW production facility in the world.

BMW
$8 billion
8,000
American workers

ALABAMA

MERCEDES
$4.5 billion
3,600
American workers

INDIANA

MERCEDES
200 jobs
to create R class vehicles exclusively for export to China

TENNESSEE

VOLKSWAGEN
$340 million
3,500
American workers

With much more to come...

These investments lead to: Jobs, Jobs, Jobs

120,000

directly employed by EU car plants across the US.

420,000

jobs generated by EU car production in the US.

And also grows US Knowledge Base

- * Research & Development
- * Apprenticeships
- * Training

