STATEMENT

by the Spokesperson on events in Canada on 22 October 2014

"We strongly condemn the attack that occurred in Ottawa on 22 October that resulted in the death of a Canadian service member. We express our deep sympathy and offer our sincere condolences to the victims of this attack and to their families. We will continue to work closely with Canada and our international partners to combat violent extremism and terrorism in all its forms, as underlined most recently at the 26 September Summit in Ottawa."
