

EU is the leading donor in Central Asia

EU overall assistance for 2014-2020 is over €1 billion

€168 million

- better living conditions in rural areas

€37 million

(2014-2017)

- better education and training for more people

Regional assistance for all five countries is €360 million for:

- More development opportunities in the regions
- Better security across Central Asia
- More effective national administrations
- More student exchanges with the EU

€251 million

- better education for more people
- better healthcare services
- better living conditions in rural areas

€214 million

- strengthened rule of law
- better education for more people
- better living conditions in rural areas
- economic stabilisation

