Discover EULEX - the EU Rule of Law Mission in Kosovo

"Impartiality", "security" - these are among the things which come to the mind of young Kosovars when asked about EULEX. Watch this video to learn more about the work & the activities of EULEX to stabilise Kosovo, a country in our immediate European neighbourhood.

EULEX Kosovo was launched in February 2008. As the largest, of the currently ten civilian CSDP Missions, EULEX Kosovo’s task is to monitor, mentor and advise local authorities with regard to police, justice and customs, while retaining executive responsibilities in specific areas of competence. More information about the Mission and its activities can be found here.
