Statement by the Spokesperson on the attack in Mogadishu, Somalia

Mogadishu has once again been the target of a terrorist attack causing a large number of casualties. The European Union sends its sincere condolences to the families of the victims and wishes a speedy recovery to the wounded.

Mutual solidarity and unity is essential to defeat terrorism and construct a brighter future for the population of Somalia. At this critical moment for the country, the EU reaffirms its continued commitment to stand by the Somali people to build a stable Somalia.
