All those third-country nationals, who are legally staying but not residing in Belarus, can also lodge an application, if they provide justification for submitting the application in Belarus.

WHAT TO DO IF A SCHENGEN COUNTRY DOES NOT HAVE A VISA ISSUING EMBASSY/CONSULATE IN BELARUS?

If a Schengen country does not have an official visa issuing representation body in Belarus (i.e., embassy/consulate), the visa application has to be submitted at the embassy/consulate of the Schengen country, representing the consular interests of the country of your destination.

Austria, Belgium, Luxembourg, the Netherlands and Slovenia:
a Schengen visa application for one of these countries may be submitted at the German Embassy.

Greece:
a Schengen visa application for Greece may be submitted at the Greek Visa Application Centre in Minsk.

Denmark:

WHAT HAPPENS IF MY APPLICATION IS SUBMITTED AT THE WRONG EMBASSY/CONSULATE?

Once an application has been submitted, the embassy/consulate verifies, whether it is in its competence to examine the visa application. If the embassy/consulate is not in a position to process the application, it will, without any delay, return the application form to the applicant, reimburse the visa fee, and indicate at which embassy/consulate you should submit the application.

Study programmes

Erasmus+ is the European Union’s programme for education, training, youth and sport. Between 2014 and 2020, it will provide opportunities for four million people to study, train and gain life experience abroad.

Erasmus+ replaces a number of older programmes, including an international exchange programme called Erasmus Mundus.

See the Erasmus+ web portal’s Resources section for information about linguistic support, documents for applicants and the management of proposals.

The European Union Visitors Programme (EUVP) is jointly sponsored and administered by the European Parliament and the European Commission and invites young, promising leaders from countries outside the European Union to visit Europe to gain a first-hand appreciation of the EU’s institutions, policies, values, and people to increase mutual understanding between professionals from non-EU countries and their EU counterparts.

An EUVP visit consists of an individual 5- to 8-day program of meetings with EU officials at the EU institutions in Brussels and/or Strasbourg. All programs are coordinated and arranged by the EUVP Secretariat. Travel and per diem costs are covered by the EUVP.

Belarusians with a career-related interest in the European Union are invited to apply for the EUVP. Eligible participants include government officials, journalists, educators, representatives of non-governmental organizations, and other professionals aged 30-40 with career-related interests in the European Union. Candidates will be professionals in a field where their EUVP experience will enhance their understanding of EU-Belarus relations and contribute positively to their chosen career path. Basic knowledge of EU institutions and their functioning is a plus.

Please note that the EUVP is not designed as a program for students: participants are required to have completed their university education or equivalent training and to have been employed for several years in their chosen career field.

EUVP participants are selected by a committee in Brussels chaired jointly by staff of the European Parliament and the European Commission.
