

AGREEMENT*between the European Community and New Zealand on certain aspects of air services

THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITY,

of the one part, and

NEW ZEALAND,

of the other part,

(hereinafter referred to as the Contracting Parties)

NOTING that bilateral air service agreements have been concluded between several Member States of the European Community and New Zealand containing provisions that have been found contrary to Community law,

NOTING that the European Community has exclusive competence with respect to several aspects that may be included in bilateral air service agreements between Member States of the European Community and third countries,

NOTING that under European Community law Community air carriers established in a Member State have the right to non-discriminatory access to air routes between that Member State and third countries,

HAVING REGARD to the agreements between the European Community and specified third countries providing for the possibility for the nationals of such third countries to acquire ownership in air carriers licensed in accordance with European Community law,

RECOGNISING that provisions of the bilateral air service agreements between Member States of the European Community and New Zealand, which have been found contrary to European Community law, must be brought into full conformity with it in order to establish a sound legal basis for air services between the European Community and New Zealand and to preserve the continuity of such air services,

NOTING that it is not a purpose of the European Community in this Agreement to increase the total volume of air traffic between the European Community and New Zealand, to affect the balance between Community air carriers and air carriers of New Zealand, or to amend the provisions of existing bilateral air service agreements concerning traffic rights,

HAVE AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

*Article 1General provisions

1. For the purposes of this Agreement, 'Member States' shall mean Member States of the European Community; 'Contracting Party' shall mean a contracting party to this Agreement; 'party' shall mean the contracting party to the relevant bilateral air services agreement; 'air carrier' shall also mean airline; 'territory of the European Community' shall mean territories of the Member States to which the Treaty establishing the European Community applies.

2. References in each of the Agreements listed in Annex I to nationals of the Member State that is a party to that Agreement shall be understood as referring to nationals of the Member States of the European Community.

3. References in each of the Agreements listed in Annex I to air carriers or airlines of the Member State that is a party to that Agreement shall be understood as referring to air carriers or airlines designated by that Member State.

*Article 2Designation, authorisation and revocation

1. The provisions in paragraphs 3 and 4 of this Article shall prevail over the corresponding provisions in the Articles listed in Annex II(a) and (b) respectively, in relation to the designation of an air carrier by the Member State concerned, its authorisations and permissions granted by New Zealand, and the refusal, revocation, suspension or limitation of the authorisations or permissions of the air carrier, respectively.

2. The provisions in paragraph 3 and 4 of this Article shall prevail over the corresponding provisions in the Articles listed in Annex II(a) and (b) to this Agreement respectively, in relation to the designation of air carriers by New Zealand, its authorisations and permissions granted by the Member State concerned, and the refusal, revocation, suspension or limitation of the authorisations or permissions of the air carrier, respectively.

3. On receipt of such a designation, and of applications from the designated air carrier(s), in the form and manner prescribed for operating authorisations and technical permissions, the other party shall, subject to paragraphs 4 and 5 grant the appropriate authorisations and permissions with minimum procedural delay, provided that:

(a) in the case of an air carrier designated by a Member State:

- (i) the air carrier, is established, under the Treaty establishing the European Community; in the territory of the designating Member State and has a valid Operating Licence from a Member State in accordance with European Community law; and
- (ii) effective regulatory control of the air carrier is exercised and maintained by the Member State responsible for issuing its Air Operator's Certificate and the relevant aeronautical authority is clearly identified in the designation; and
- (iii) the air carrier has its principal place of business in the territory of the Member State from which it has received the operating licence; and
- (iv) the air carrier is owned directly or through majority ownership and effectively controlled by Member States and/or nationals of Member States, and/or by other States listed in Annex III and/or nationals of such other States.

(b) in the case of an air carrier designated by New Zealand:

- (i) New Zealand has and maintains effective regulatory control of the air carrier; and
- (ii) it has its principal place of business and place of incorporation in New Zealand.

4. Either party may refuse, revoke, suspend or limit the operating authorisation or technical permissions of an air carrier designated by the other party where:

(a) in the case of an air carrier designated by a Member State:

- (i) the air carrier is not established, under the Treaty establishing the European Community, in the territory of the designating Member State or does not have a valid Operating Licence from a Member State in accordance with European Community law; or
- (ii) effective regulatory control of the air carrier is not exercised or not maintained by the Member State responsible for issuing its Air Operator's Certificate, or the relevant aeronautical authority is not clearly identified in the designation; or

(iii) the air carrier does not have its principal place of business in the territory of the Member State from which it has received the Operating Licence; or

(iv) the air carrier is not owned and effectively controlled directly or through majority ownership by Member States and/or nationals of Member States, and/or by other States listed in Annex III and/or nationals of such other States; or

(v) the air carrier is already authorised to operate under a bilateral agreement between New Zealand and another Member State and New Zealand can demonstrate that, by exercising traffic rights under this Agreement on a route that includes a point in that other Member State, it would be circumventing restrictions on the traffic rights imposed by that other agreement; or

(vi) the air carrier designated holds an Air Operator's Certificate issued by a Member State and there is no bilateral air services agreement between New Zealand and that Member State and that Member State has denied traffic rights to the air carrier designated by New Zealand;

(b) in the case of an air carrier designated by New Zealand:

(i) New Zealand is not maintaining effective regulatory control of the air carrier; or

(ii) it does not have its principal place of business and place of incorporation in New Zealand.

5. In exercising its right under paragraph 4, and without prejudice to its rights under paragraph 4(a)(v) and (vi) of this Article, New Zealand shall not discriminate between air carriers of Member States on the grounds of nationality.

Article 3

Rights with regard to regulatory control

1. The provisions in paragraph 2 of this Article shall complement the Articles listed in Annex II(c).

2. Where a Member State has designated an air carrier whose regulatory control is exercised and maintained by another Member State, the rights of New Zealand under the safety provisions of the agreement between the Member State that has designated the air carrier and New Zealand shall apply equally in respect of the adoption, exercise or maintenance of safety standards by that other Member State and in respect of the operating authorisation of that air carrier.

*Article 4Taxation of aviation fuel

1. The provisions in paragraph 2 of this Article shall complement the corresponding provisions in the Articles listed in Annex II(d).

2. Notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary, nothing in each of the Agreements listed in Annex II(d) shall prevent Member States or New Zealand from imposing on a non-discriminatory basis taxes, levies, duties, fees or charges on fuel supplied in their respective territories for use in an aircraft of a designated air carrier of a Member State or New Zealand that operates between two points within the respective territories of the Contracting Parties.

*Article 5Tariffs

1. The provisions in paragraph 2 of this Article shall complement the Articles listed in Annex II(e).

2. The tariffs to be charged by the air carrier(s) designated by New Zealand under an agreement listed in Annex I containing a provision listed in Annex II(e) for carriage wholly within the European Community shall be subject to European Community law. European Community law is applied on a non-discriminatory basis.

3. The tariffs to be charged by the air carriers designated by Member States under an Agreement listed in Annex I containing a provision listed in Annex II(e) for carriage wholly within New Zealand shall be subject to New Zealand law. New Zealand law is applied on a non discriminatory basis.

*Article 6Annexes to the Agreement

The Annexes to this Agreement shall form an integral part thereof.

*Article 7Revision or amendment

The Contracting Parties may, at any time, revise or amend this Agreement by mutual consent.

*Article 8Entry into force

1. This Agreement shall enter into force when the Contracting Parties have notified each other in writing that their respective internal procedures necessary for its entry into force have been completed.

2. Notwithstanding paragraph 1, the Contracting Parties agree to apply this Agreement provisionally from the first day of the month following the date on which the Contracting Parties have notified each other of the completion of the procedures necessary for this purpose.

3. Agreements and other arrangements between Member States and New Zealand which, at the date of signature of this Agreement, have not yet entered into force and are not being applied provisionally are listed in Annex I(b). This Agreement shall apply to all such Agreements and arrangements upon their entry into force or provisional application.

*Article 9Termination

1. In the event that an agreement listed in Annex I is terminated, all provisions of this Agreement that relate to the agreement listed in Annex I concerned shall terminate at the same time.

2. In the event that all agreements listed in Annex I are terminated, this Agreement shall terminate at the same time.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, being duly authorised, have signed this Agreement.

Done at Brussels in duplicate, on this twenty-first day of June in the year two thousand and six, in the Czech, Danish, Dutch, English, Estonian, Finnish, French, German, Greek, Hungarian, Italian, Latvian, Lithuanian, Maltese, Polish, Portuguese, Slovak, Slovenian, Spanish, and Swedish languages. In the case of divergence the English text shall prevail over the other language texts.
