Purwokerto, Jawa Tengah

 @lylulelo

Occupation:

Pearson Business and Economics
Teacher, Puhua Secondary School

Bachelor of Economics,
Development Economics,
Jenderal Soedirman University

Currently active in ASEAN Youth Organisation (AYO)

As an educator, Ly is dedicated to being a role model for her students, believing this approach nurtures the most effective learning experiences. Ly actively seeks personal development through both local and international events. By integrating real-life examples into her teaching methods, Ly aims to enrich her students' educational journeys through comprehensive learning opportunities.

In addition to being an economics teacher at Puhua Secondary School in Purwokerto, Central Java, Ly also holds the position of Secretary General of the ASEAN Youth organisation Research Centre (AYO Recent) and has been a researcher at the ASEAN Youth organisation (AYO) since 2021. Previously, she was a Research Intern at The German-Indonesian Chamber of Industry and Commerce (EKONID) and had also worked as an assistant lecturer at her alma mater, Universitas Jenderal Soedirman in Purwokerto.

Beyond the education sector, Ly is also passionate on environmental issues. She is part of the Sociolla Recycling Programme and has used her social media presence to advocate responsible waste management and other SDG-related missions. As part of the Youth Sounding Board, Ly plans to share her teaching and research with like-minded individuals to provide valuable insights and boost advocacy for a reformed education system in Indonesia as well as accelerating the country's transition to a greener economy by encouraging higher participation from students. Ultimately, Ly aspires to integrate the insights gained from the programme into her research projects with related institutions.
