EUBAM Libya in its Headquarters in Tripoli has a high-risk non-family Mission status. For security purposes, Mission Members are obliged to live in restricted areas, where security responsibilities are borne by the Mission.

Seconded Personnel – For seconded positions, only personnel nominations received through official channels from EU Member States will be considered. EU Member States will bear all personnel related costs for seconded personnel, e.g. salaries, medical coverage, travel expenses to and from the Mission area (including home leave) and allowances other than those paid according to the Council documents 7291/09 (10 March 2009) and 9084/13 (30 April 2013).

Contracted Personnel – The Mission may recruit international staff on a contractual basis as required, through an employment contract. The employment contract with the Mission establishes the conditions of employment, rights and obligations, remuneration, allowances, travel and removal expenses and the applicable high-risk insurance policy. Preference will be given to seconded candidates.

Documents supporting educational qualifications and work experience should be accompanied by certified translations of the original documents in the English language, if issued in another language, in accordance with the European Commission Guidelines for Lifelong Learning, which ensures transparency in higher education and fair and informed judgements about qualifications.

Tour of Duty/Contract Period – Subject to the adoption of the Council Decision extending the Mission mandate and approving the appropriate Budgetary Impact Statement, the duration of the deployment should be of 12 months.

The Civilian Operations Commander requests that contributing States propose candidates for the following international expert positions for EUBAM Libya, according to the requirements and profiles described below:

1. GENERAL CONDITIONS

EU Member States and Contributing Third States are requested to ensure that the following essential requirements are strictly met and accepted in respect of civilian international experts to the Mission.

Citizenship – The candidates must be citizens of an EU Member State or of a Contributing Third State.

Integrity – The candidates must maintain the highest standards of personal integrity, impartiality and self-discipline within the Mission. Candidates are not allowed to provide or discuss any information or document as a result of access to classified and/or sensitive information relating to the Mission or respective tasks and activities. The candidates shall carry out their duties and act in the interest of the Mission.

Flexibility and Adaptability – The candidates must be able to work in arduous conditions with a limited network of support and with unpredictable working hours and a considerable workload. They must have the ability to work professionally as a member of a team, in task forces and working groups with mixed composition (e.g. civilian and military staff) and be able to cope with extended separation from family and usual environment.

Availability – The candidates must be able to undertake any other administrative tasks related with the competencies, responsibilities and functions of the respective position within the Mission, as required by the Head of Mission.

Physical and Mental Health – The candidates must be physically fit and in good health without any physical or mental problems or substance dependency which may impair operational performance in the Mission and in its Area of Operation. Selected candidates should undergo an extensive medical examination as requested by the seconding authority or the Mission in accordance with “Fit to work clearance” procedure prior to recruitment/deployment to prove that they comply with the requirement.

To ensure duty of care in the CSDP Mission, selected seconded/contracted candidates shall be able to serve the full period of secondment/contract before reaching the normal age of retirement in Contributing (Third) States/country of residence.

Serious deficiencies in any of these general conditions may result in repatriation/termination of the secondment/contract

II. REQUIREMENTS

II.A Essential Requirements

The following are essential requirements in respect of civilian international experts to the Missions for all Job Descriptions:

Education and Training

The candidates should have a recognised academic qualification under the European Qualifications Framework (EQF)¹, or equivalent, at a level specified in the individual job descriptions.

Missionwise (replacing BASE) and SAFE are mandatory e-learning courses to be completed prior to deployment. HEAT training is another requirement before visiting Libya. The candidate should have completed a Pre-Deployment Training in accordance with the CSDP agreed Training Policy.

Knowledge

The candidates should have knowledge of the EU Institutions and Mission Mandate, particularly related to the Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP), including the Common Security and Defence Policy (CSDP).

Skills and abilities Language Skills² – Spoken and written proficiency in the working language of the Mission (English). Certain positions may require higher language skills further specified in the individual job descriptions.

Negotiation Skills – The candidates must have excellent negotiating skills and the ability to work professionally in a stressful and diverse environment

Communication and Interpersonal Skills – The candidates must have excellent interpersonal and communication skills, both written and oral.

Computer Skills – Skills in word processing, spreadsheet and e-mail are essential. Knowledge of other IT tools will be an asset.

Driving Licence – The candidates must be in possession of a valid - including Mission area - civilian driving licence for motor vehicles (Category B or equivalent). They also must be able to drive any 4-wheel-drive vehicle.

Serious deficiencies in any of these essential requirements may result in repatriation/termination of the secondment/contract.

II.B Desirable Requirements

² <https://europa.eu/europass/en/common-european-framework-reference-language-skills> (Common European Framework of References for Languages)

Knowledge and Experience of SSR – The candidates should be acquainted with Security Sector Reform concepts and practices, especially in the Mission area.

Knowledge of Maghreb – The candidates should have a good knowledge of the history, culture, social and political situation of the region and also knowledge of the police, judiciary and governmental structures (distinct advantage).

Training and Experience – The candidates should have attended a Civilian Crisis Management Course or have participated in a CSDP Mission (desirable).

III. Essential Documents and requirements for Selected Candidates

Passport – The selected candidates must obtain a passport from their respective national authorities. If possible, a Service Passport should be issued or preferably a Diplomatic Passport.

Visas – EU Member States and selected candidates will get a visa at the airport upon arrival valid for 3 months. After arrival, the Mission will apply for visa and diplomatic card for the staff through the EU Delegation.

Required Security Clearance (PSC) – The selected candidates will have to be in possession of the necessary level of Personnel Security Clearance (PSC) as specified in the respective job descriptions. For seconded experts, the original certificate of the national security clearance or a proof of the initiation of the process must accompany them upon deployment. For contracted experts, the process will be initiated by the Mission upon deployment. For both seconded and contracted experts, access to EUCI will be limited to RESTRICTED until the issuance of their national security clearance.

Certificate/Booklet of Vaccination – The selected candidates must be in possession of a valid certificate/ booklet of vaccination showing all vaccinations and immunisations received. They also must be vaccinated according to the required immunisations for the Mission area.

Medical Certificate – The selected candidates should undergo an extensive medical examination and be certified medically fit for Mission duty. As temporary measure and while the COVID-19 pandemic persists, Missions will request an extensive medical examination taking into account the exceptional circumstances of COVID-19 crises. In a similar manner a dental examination should be certified where it is stated that no eminent dental issues are foreseen. A copy of the result of the medical examination as well as the certification must be provided by seconded/contracted personnel as well as interns and sent to the Medical Adviser of the Mission before joining the Mission. Medical data will be handled with confidentiality and in line with EU Charter of Fundamental Rights and the Standard Operating Procedure on the protection of personal data (CivOpsCdr instruction 12-2018 as amended.)

The Heads of Mission reserve the right to reject the recruitment of any selected candidate that proves to be medically unfit to work in a civilian CSDP Mission.

Personal Protection Equipment – It is recommended that national authorities provide seconded selected candidates with protection equipment (Annex 2 - List of Recommended Security Equipment sent to the Contributing States).

Deficiencies in any of the documents asked for a specific position may result in failure of the selection process.

IV. Additional Information on the Selection Process

Gender balance - The EU strives for improved gender balance in CSDP operations in compliance with UNSCR 1325. CPCC encourages contributing States and European Institutions to take this into account when offering contributions.

Application Form – For candidates holding an EU citizenship, applications will be considered only when using the online Application Form (AF) accessible on the Goalkeeper-Registrar software module, indicating which position(s) the candidate is applying for. Candidates seconded by Invited Third States will apply using the Application Form in Annex 3.

Selection Process – The candidates considered to be most suitable will be shortlisted and, if needed, interviewed in Brussels, at the Headquarters of the Mission or by phone or video conference, before the final selection is made. If seconded candidates are required to travel to Brussels/Mission Headquarters for interviews, contributing States will bear any related costs.

The selection of candidates who are working for other civilian CSDP Missions at the time of their application will be subject to an impact assessment taking into account the operational needs of the CSDP Missions concerned.

Information on the Outcome – EU Member States and contracted candidates (applying for seconded/contracted positions) will be informed about the outcome of the selection process after its completion.

Accommodation - Mission Members will be accommodated in Mission provided accommodation and will contribute towards the overall cost of the accommodation.

Pre-Deployment Training (PDT) – The selected candidates should have undergone Pre-Deployment Training in accordance with the CSDP agreed Training Policy.

Data Protection – The EEAS and its Directorate CPCC process personal data pursuant to Regulation (EC) 2018/1725 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data. The Privacy statement is available on the EEAS website as well as in the Goalkeeper system.
