● ERASMUS Degree

1. Erasmus Mundus Joint Master Degree (EMJMD): Follow an entire or multiple degree(s) in Europe

- An EMJMD is an integrated study programme offered by a Consortium of universities.
- An EMJMD leads to the award of a recognised joint, double or multiple degree(s).
- An EMJMD consists of 60, 90 or 120 European Credit Transfer System (ECTS) credits at masters level, thus lasting from one to two academic years.
- The EMJMD covers a wide range of academic disciplines: agricultural and forestry sciences, business studies and management sciences, communication and information sciences, education and teacher training, engineering and technology, humanities, law etc.

WHAT is a Consortium?

A Consortium is a group of at least three higher education institutions from three different European countries which has been selected by the European Commission (EC) – the executive body of the EU – to offer an EMJMD or EMJD.

2. Erasmus Mundus Joint Doctorate (EMJD): Undertake your research in Europe

- An EMJD is an integrated training and research programme offered by a Consortium of universities.
- Doctoral candidates will undertake training/ research periods in at least two of the European countries represented in the Consortium.
- The candidates must spend at least two thirds of their doctoral programme in Europe for the period covered by the fellowship.
- The candidates must complete the training and research programme within a maximum period of four years, although the EMJD fellowship will cover a maximum of three years.
- An EMJD leads to the award of a recognised joint, double or multiple degree(s).

*Starting from 2014 onwards, this Doctoral Programme – the EMJD – and additional doctoral fellowships are available under the Marie Skłodowska-Curie Actions, which form part of the EU's Horizon 2020 programme for research and innovation. ## ● HOW and WHEN to apply?

- Indonesians interested in an Erasmus+ Scholarship have to apply directly to the Consortium offering the particular EMJMD or EMJD programme of their choice. The application period is usually opened in September or October, for courses starting the following academic year.
- Application procedures and deadlines vary between courses.
- Visit the catalogue of EMJMD and EMJD at <http://bit.ly/beasiswaEU> to find over 100 Masters and Doctoral programmes offering Erasmus+ scholarships.

● IS the scholarship applicable for other degree programmes?

- No. The scholarships are exclusively reserved for undertaking Erasmus+ joint programmes (EMJMD and EMJD). In other words, it is not applicable for students, doctoral candidates and scholars who have been accepted by other master or doctoral degree programmes in Europe or elsewhere in the world.

Application PROCESS

QUICK STEPS to apply for an Erasmus+ Scholarship

Step #1

1) Review all the Master (EMJMD) or Doctorate (EMJD) programmes offering Erasmus+ Scholarships for the next academic year: <http://bit.ly/beasiswaEU>

2) Select the course which you are interested in and access its website to obtain specific details, such as course description, prerequisites, the application process, forms and deadlines.

3) Apply directly to the Consortium via its website.

Step #2

Step #3

The Consortium proposes a list of successful applicants to the EC Headquarters in Brussels for final approval (by the end of February).

The EC confirms the selection and assigns the grants (by the end of March).

Following the deadline for application, the Consortium will select the applicant on the basis of the CV, study and academic merits, motivation.

Step #4

The Consortium will notify applicants if they have been accepted for the course and if they have been awarded a scholarship (usually in May).

#5: Bon voyage to Europe!
