The Grand Duchy of Luxembourg and No Lost Generation invite you to a side event of the Fourth Brussels Conference on Supporting the Future of Syria and the Region

Keeping the promise for a No Lost Generation: protecting, educating and listening to the voice of Syria's children, adolescents and young people

Date: Monday 29 June
Time: 11.30 – 13.00 CET
Webinar platform: ZOOM

Today approximately 8 million Syrian children are growing up in the shadow of the conflict in Syria and are in need of assistance inside Syria and in host countries. In 2013 the international community committed to ensure there will be No Lost Generation as a result of this conflict. Nine years after the conflict started, and in the midst of a pandemic that has aggravated pre-existing vulnerabilities, it is now more important than ever to ensure that the needs, rights and concerns of children, adolescents and youth are voiced where decisions affecting them are made, such as the Brussels IV Conference on the Future of Syria and the Region. This event will discuss how the EU and the broader international community can secure a brighter future for Syria's children through education and child protection.
