JUNIOR PROFESSIONALS IN DELEGATION

HIGH LEVEL TRAINEESHIP PROGRAMME

Right to protection of personal data of applicants to the JPD traineeship programme

Any personal data relating to the applicant, including or in connection with any future traineeship agreement with him/her or the performance thereof, shall be processed in accordance with Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data.

The data will be processed only for the purposes of the management and follow up of the application and of the traineeship agreement, without prejudice to its possible transmission to the bodies responsible for monitoring or inspection in accordance with Community law.

Applicants have the right of access to their personal data and the right to correct any inaccurate or incomplete data. In this connection they may contact Division BA.HR.2 at the EEAS, 242 rue de la Loi, B-1046 Brussels, Belgium which is responsible for the processing of these data. Applicants have the right of appeal at any time to the Data Protection Officer (DPO) of the EEAS, to the European Data Protection Supervisor (EDPS), or to contact the European Ombudsman.

Applicants undertake to inform all the persons whom they have cited in their application that their data may be processed by the EEAS or the European Commission under the present programme in compliance with Regulation (EC) No 45/2001.

The recipients of the data contained in the application form will be EEAS and Commission officials in relevant departments and services. Where appropriate, officials at the level of Head of Division/Unit, Director, Managing Director, Director-General will then receive summaries of the pre-selected applications and the proposed traineeship places. Once the decision on the traineeship place has been accepted by the applicant, the Head of Administration as well as the Head of the Union Delegation concerned will receive a copy of the application.

Applications received by the EEAS or the Commission from the EU Member States via their Permanent Representation will be preserved in appropriate archive facilities and electronic servers. This also applies to the applicants who would decline the traineeship offer or would withdraw from the programme.

The time limit for storing the data of applicants who are not selected, reserve applicants and applicants who are selected but then do not accept the offered traineeship place or traineeship agreement is two years. The data of applicants who become trainees under this programme is stored for at least five years following the date on which their traineeship agreement definitively ends.

In the event of disagreement applicants may address complaints and requests for information, or for cancellation or correction of a decision taken by the EEAS or the Commission (within their sphere of competence) to Division BA.HR.2 at the EEAS.
