

Embassy of the Federal Republic of Germany Jakarta

giz

On the occasion of the Climate Diplomacy Week

held in Jakarta from 24 September to 6 October 2019

the

Embassy of the Federal Republic of Germany and

GIZ (Forest and Climate Change Programme FORCLIME)

invite you to the event

“Countering the Climate Crisis: Youth for Forest Conservation” on Tuesday, 24 September 2019, 09:00h to 12:30h at the Ministry of Environment and Forestry Manggala Wanabakti Building, Room Rimbawan 2

Jl. Gatot Subroto
Senayan

Please register via E-mail until 23rd September 2019 only to wz-s1@jaka.diplo.de, Mrs. Maike Altmeyer.

Please note, the number of participants will be limited, so first come first serve!

Indonesian students and experts will give first hand insights into Indonesia's forestry sector, the engagement of the German Development Cooperation and the importance of Sustainable Forest Management

Time	Agenda
08:30 – 09:00	Registration
09:00 – 09:10	Opening and Introduction to Agenda
09:10 – 09:25	Opening Remarks by Hendrik Barkeling, Head of Mission, German Embassy
09:25 – 09:35	Opening Remarks and Reporting by GIZ FORCLIME
09:35 – 09:50	Introduction of Speakers
09:50 – 10:05	1 st Speaker Presentation: Internship at GIZ FORCLIME: “Insights of Papua Internship Program of FORCLIME” , followed by video testimonials by interns from Papua
10:05 – 10:20	2 nd Speaker Presentation: International Forestry Students’ Association Representative: “Empowering today’s students to answer the climate challenges”
10:20 – 10:35	3 rd Speaker Presentation: Founder of Foresteract.com : “Engaging youth in the climate change education and media outreach”
10:35 – 10:50	4 th Speaker Presentation: MoEF Youth Representative: “Ensuring youth participation in the climate change-related policy making process”
10:50 – 11:30	Facilitated Talk show
11:30 – 12:00	Q&A with Audiences
12:00 – 12:10	Closing
12:10 - end	Lunch