Co-operation with EULEX

The European Union Rule of Law Mission in Kosovo (EULEX), as a Common Security and Defence Policy Mission with a mandate of monitoring the Kosovo Justice System and the Kosovo Correctional Service plays a central role in advancing rule of law in Kosovo.

The EUSR experts provide a link between the EULEX expertise and the high level political forum, facilitating implementation of EULEX recommendations advancing Kosovo on its European path.

The EUSR Rule of Law and Legal Section cooperates closely with EULEX experts within the ambit of the Legal Review Mechanism, ensuring that the EU family speaks with one voice in the discussions on the necessary legislative reforms.

Finally, the EUSR Rule of Law and Legal Section plays a role in coordinating EULEX activities with the support provided by the EU funded projects and other international stakeholders.

---

1 This designation is without prejudice to positions on status, and is in line with UNSCR 1244 (1999) and the ICJ Opinion on the Kosovo Declaration of Independence.