

MARKUS EDERER

Ambassador of the European Union to the Russian Federation, Head of Delegation

Curriculum vitae

Born in 1957 (Munich), married with one child

Since October 2017	Ambassador of the European Union to the Russian Federation, Head of Delegation, Moscow
2014 – 2017	State Secretary, Federal Foreign Office of the Federal Republic of Germany (German Foreign Office), Berlin
2011 – 2014	EU Ambassador, Head of EU Delegation to the People's Republic of China and Mongolia, Beijing
2005 – 2010	Director General, Head of Policy Planning, German Foreign Office, Berlin
2002 – 2005	Director, Political and Economic Assessment, Federal Foreign Intelligence Service (BND) of Germany, Munich
1999 – 2002	Head of Cabinet, Special Coordinator of the Stability Pact for South Eastern Europe, Brussels
1998 – 1999	Deputy Head of South Eastern Europe Division, German Foreign Office, Bonn
1996 – 1998	Deputy Spokesman, German Foreign Office, Bonn
1993 – 1996	Spokesperson, German Foreign Office, Bonn
1990 – 1993	Economic Affairs Officer, German Embassy, Moscow
1990	Head, Economic and Legal Department, German Embassy, Ottawa
1989 – 1990	Personal Secretary to Minister of State, German Foreign Office, Bonn
1988	Joined German Foreign Office
1988	Juris Doctor, University of Passau, Germany
1985	Master of Laws (LL.M.), University of Miami, USA
1979 – 1983	Study of Law, International Relations, Political Science and South East Asian Studies, University of Passau, Germany and University of Geneva, Switzerland