

EU CHINA RELATIONS

The EU and China established formal diplomatic ties in 1975 and today EU-China relations encompass an annual summit, regular ministerial meetings, and over 60 sectoral dialogues. The EU and China are committed to a comprehensive strategic partnership, as expressed in the EU-China 2020 Strategic Agenda for Cooperation. The EU's new Strategy on China, adopted in July 2016, has been followed by a March 2019 strategic stocktaking of the EU-China relationship by the European Commission and the High Representative.

In order to maintain our prosperity, values and social model over the long term, there are areas where the EU needs to adapt to changing economic realities and strengthen its policies. Based on clearly defined interests and principles, the EU should also seek to deepen effective and coherent engagement with China. Given the importance of EU-China economic relations, it is important to maintain very close trade and investment links, while developing a more balanced economic relationship.

STRENGTHENING EU-CHINA CONNECTIVITY

The EU's Strategy on Connecting Europe and Asia provides a basis for confident engagement with EU's partners, enabling the Union to seek possible synergies with China in different areas, on the basis of international norms and standards.

The key principles of EU's engagement on connectivity are sustainability, transparency, open procurement and level playing field.

The EU-China Connectivity Platform aims at promoting sustainable transport corridors based on the principles of the Trans-European Transport networks policy.

FOREIGN AND SECURITY POLICY

EU-China cooperation was a major factor in first securing the Iran nuclear agreement and now in ensuring its full and effective implementation.

The EU and China agree that the denuclearisation of the Korean Peninsula is essential to ensure stability in the East Asia region and beyond. The EU seeks a regular and substantial dialogue with China on disarmament and non-proliferation issues.

The EU and China work towards fighting global challenges and tackling difficult situations in our respective neighbourhoods. The EU wants to work more closely with China to promote peace and security, for example in Afghanistan.

The EU wants to further build on cooperation with China on peace-keeping and security and defence matters in Africa. EU and Chinese coordinated approaches to counter-piracy operations in the Gulf of Aden and off the Horn of Africa have increased security of shipping in those areas.
