EU Integrated Border Assistance Mission in Libya (EUBAM Libya)

Updated: September 2017

MISSION BACKGROUND

The EU Integrated Border Management Assistance Mission in Libya (EUBAM Libya) was originally established in May 2013 under the Common Security and Defence Policy (CSDP), but the severe deterioration of the security situation in July 2014 forced the suspension of its activities and the evacuation to Tunis, alongside the rest of the international community.

Following the signature of the Libyan Political Agreement of December 2015, the mission was redeployed to work in coordination with Libyan authorities and the United Nations Support Mission in Libya (UNSMIL) to assist and plan a comprehensive civilian security sector reform process. At the request of Libyan institutions, EUBAM advices and supports local partners in improving their institutional frameworks, cooperation capacities, operational concepts and training policies.

EUBAM Libya's mandate was renewed until 31 December 2018, and its headquarters continue to operate from Tunis, where it is co-located with the EU Delegation Libya. The Mission conducts regular visits to Tripoli to engage and assist its partners, and assess the state of border, law-enforcement and criminal justice institutions. In August 2017 the Mission's staff ceiling was raised to 38 internationals, with a budget of €17 million (until November 2017).

MANDATE AND OBJECTIVE

In accordance with the Foreign Affairs Council conclusions of 19 April 2016, the Mission is tasked to plan in view of a possible future civilian CSDP mission to support the Government of National Accord (GNA), upon their request. EUBAM Libya does not have an executive mandate, and works primarily on strategic planning and assistance institutions charged manage Libya's to borders, the Police and criminal justice

Key priority areas include policing, the fight against organized crime and counter-terrorism, border management, including the fight against smuggling and trafficking of human beings, customs, and their interrelation with the wider criminal justice chain. EUBAM Libya works in these fields to advice and design further capacity building activities as part of a broader, Libyan-led support to the reform of the security sector. EUBAM is the privileged interlocutor of Libya's national platforms to reform its border management system. Moreover, in coordination with the
