Strengthening Border Security in Ghana

PRESS RELEASE

Accra, 06/10/2020

The EU supports innovative approaches and best practices on mobility and border management

The Strengthening Border Security in Ghana (SBS Ghana) project, funded by European Union Emergency Trust Fund for Africa (EUTF), has launched the Demand Driven Facility (DDF) Call for Proposals - Support to innovative approaches and best practices on mobility and border management.

The Demand Driven Facility (DDF) Call for Proposals is centred on civil society organisations, research institutions, think tanks, traders' organisations and organisations representing media / media networks.

In particular, the innovative approaches and best practices will have to:

- Increase knowledge and data management.
- Establish or enhance cooperation mechanisms between relevant stakeholders.
- Create awareness and coordination for accountability and better public service delivery.
- Develop innovative practices to improve cooperation and mitigate issues at the border.

About ICMPD

The International Centre for Migration Policy Development (ICMPD) is an international organisation with 18 Member States and more than 250 staff members. Active in more than 90 countries worldwide, it takes a regional approach in its work to create efficient cooperation and partnerships along migration routes. Priority regions include Africa, Central and South Asia, Europe and the Middle East. Its three-pillar approach to migration management – structurally linking research, migration dialogues and capacity building – contributes to better migration policy development worldwide. The Vienna-based organisation has a mission in Brussels, a regional office in Malta and project offices in several countries. In Africa, offices are located in Tunis (Tunisia), Abuja (Nigeria) and Accra (Ghana). Founded in 1993, ICMPD holds UN observer status. For more information: <https://www.icmpd.org>

About SBS Ghana

The Strengthening Border Security in Ghana (SBS Ghana) project is funded by the European Union Emergency Trust Fund for Africa (EUTF), and implemented by ICMPD, in cooperation with the GIS. The specific objective is to contribute to the development of the long-term capability border control authorities in Ghana; to update border management information and communication systems; and to ensure greater security for citizens and visitors, while guaranteeing the respect for the rule of law and human rights standards.
